Idyllic Setting: Positioned ideally between the bustling village of Yoxall and the premier hamlet of Hoar Cross, Redbank Farm Barns enjoy a desirable and tranquil setting overlooking peaceful countryside views. Rambling, cycling and equestrian pursuits can all be enjoyed from your doorstep, with surrounding commuter routes and amenities easily accessible from the secluded yet well connected position.

from the property. The barns lie a short drive from both Hoar Cross Hall Spa & the FAs St George's Park, both of which offer health and leisure facilities including a members' only gym. Local Barton under Needwood offers more comprehensive amenities including a Post Office and Co-Op, boutique shops, a doctors surgery, dispensary pharmacy, Holland Sports Club and a village hall.

Village Living: Yoxall is around one mile away and is home to a vibrant community centred around the character High Street where pubs, a convenience store and Post Office, a butchers' and a Health Centre can all be found. Rural amenities include a local Butchers, Bakery and the Deer Park Farmshop and Café, all being within a healthy walk Schooling: The area benefits from excellent schooling both private and state, with the 'Outstanding' rated St Peters Primary School in Yoxall feeding into John Taylor Academy in Barton under Needwood. The John Taylor Free School in Tatenhill also lies within a convenient drive, and independent institutions include Lichfield Cathedral, Repton, Denstone and Abbotsholme.

Well Connected: The village acts as an A38 corridor, giving swift access to the A50 and national motorway network beyond. For commuters, the commercial centres of Burton on Trent, Lichfield, Birmingham, Uttoxeter and Nottingham are all reachable, rail travel from Lichfield provides direct links to Birmingham and London, and the International Airports of East Midlands, Birmingham and Manchester are each with an hour's drive.
